

STETSON DOESN'T WONDER AT ANGER OF BOSS MURPHY

As a "Free American and a Democrat," He Believes It "Largely Justified."

Francis Lynde Stetson, who was accused in a statement issued last night by Tammany leader Charles F. Murphy, applied today at his home, No. 4 East Seventy-fourth street.

"Mr. Murphy is entitled to form and express any opinion of me he sees fit. I think he is largely justified in his resentment."

"I am a free American citizen and am not a candidate for any office. As to the question that I organized the Street Trust and the Harvester Trust, I am pleased to say that it is true and I am proud of it."

In the statement issued by Murphy he accuses Stetson of being the "myriarch power" that has been preventing the election of a United States Senator, calls him a "political pharisee," and accuses him of trying to wreck the Democratic party in this State, and with trying to bring about a coalition with the Republicans and insurgents at the present time.

Murphy declares Stetson represents both J. P. Morgan and Thomas P. Ryan, says he is connected with many corporate activities, and rises to the climax that Stetson is "the personification of the interests." He concludes:

WOMAN ADMITS THEFTS IN MANY HARLEM HOMES

Shole List of Customers' Addresses From Former Employer and Used It For Robbery.

Miss Anna Campbell of No. 34 West One Hundred and Thirtieth street, acknowledged today in Harlem Court that she was the thief who has been making trouble all over Harlem.

From her former employer a man dressmaker of upper Seventh avenue, Mrs. Campbell had stolen a customer's address book. Without making anything to her husband, who is a private in the Twenty-ninth Infantry U. S. A., she determined to use the book as a source of income.

She called on her former employer's customers, saying that she was about to go into business for herself and wanted their trade. Usually she complained of being faint and asked for a glass of water. While this was being provided she picked up anything which was lying around.

From Mrs. Josephine Kels of No. 20 West One Hundred street she took a diamond ring containing a gold watch, a small sum of money and some jewelry. From Mrs. Lee Levy of No. 22 West One Hundred and Thirtieth street, she took a pocketbook containing $60, Detective Finger and Blatman found some of the missing jewelry in a pawnshop and so ran Mrs. Campbell down.

Valued Husband at $6,000.

MALONE, N. Y., March 29.—Mrs. Amelia Davidson, who sued in the Supreme Court here for $20,000 damages from the Brooklyn Copper Company at St. Regis Falls for the death of her husband while in the company's employment last August, was today awarded $6,000. The widow has seven children.

made possible

Because cash sales—without charge accounts and bad debts is the selling system of minimum expense; and Macy's is the only large store in New York selling solely for cash.

Because direct from Manufacturer to Consumer is the most economical merchandising method; and Macy's manufactures more of its own merchandise than any other two New York stores.
